LABOR SWINGING INTO LINE

George is Promised Twenty-Five Thousand Votes.

TAMMANY COLONIZING VOTERS.

George Visits the Vienna Bakery and Declares it Shows Crying Injustice in Distribution of Wealth.

By Wire To THE TELEGRAM.

New York, Oct. 21.—It is charged that the Raines hotels are being colonized by Tammany. One man has been arrested with an illegal registration ticket on his person.

The Knights of Labor have swung into line for Henry George, promising twenty-five thousand votes.

Last night George visited the Long Lane poor who nightly await the distribution of stale bread at the Vienna bakery. He declared that this shows the crying injustice of the present distribution of wealth.

INVITED MISS CISNEROS

To Attend the Tobacco Fair at Winston-Salem.

The Winston tobacco fair association has issued an invitation to Miss Evangelina Cisneros, the brave little Cuban girl, who was recently rescued from a Spanish prison through the efforts of the New York Journal. We publish the letter of invitation in full:

Winston, N. C., Oct. 19, 1897.

Miss Cisneros:—The liberty-loving people of North Carolina have watched with intense interest and admiration the outpouring of congratulations from all sections of our country upon your rescue and safe deliverance to the protecting power of the United States.

Our beautiful little city lying among the foot hills of the Blue ridge joins in hearty commendation at the enterprise of the New York Journal and the wonderful courage displayed by yourself in the very trying ordeal through which you have passed.

The people of our section will gather in great numbers to share in the festivities incident to our approaching fair for the display of the tobacco production of North Carolina and Virginia, and the executive committee, backed by the voice of the people, extend to you a most hearty invitation to visit us during our fair week, beginning on the 3d of November, prox., and to be our honored guest on this occasion.

No effort will be spared to make your visit a most enjoyable one and your acceptance will give us a much coveted opportunity to do honor to the brave little Cuban.

With sentiments of the highest respect, Sincerely yours,
G. E. Webb, G. A. Follin,
Secretary. Chm. Ex. Com.

THE DATE ANNOUNCED

For the Marriage of Hon. Thomas
Settle and Miss Potter.

Hon. Thos. Settle, ex-congressman from this district, is soon to be married. The bride-elect is Miss Eliza Potter, of Wilmington.

The marriage is announced to take place at high noon on Thursday, November 18th, in St. James Episcopal Church, Wilmington.

Miss Sallie Potter, sister of the bride-to-be, will be maid of honor, and Lieut. Douglas Settle, U.S.A., a brother of Mr. Settle, will be best man.

Married at Mocksville.

As was announced in THE TELEGRAM on Tuesday, Mr. R. H. Hayes, of Pittsboro was married yesterday at 4 p. m. at Mocksville, to Miss Nannie Roberts, of that place. It was a quiet but beautiful home wedding attended only by the family and a few intimate friends and admirers. Mr. A. P. Gilbert, of Goldston, accompanied Mr. Hayes to Mocksville and was best man.

Mr. and Mrs. Hayes were here at noon today going to Pittsboro, where they will reside. They were accompanied by Mr. Gilbert and Miss Minnie Douthit. Miss Douthit will spend sometime with Mrs. Hayes at Pittsboro.

THE TELEGRAM, not having any old shoes or rice to spare, can only express the oft-repeated and well worn wish of a long life of happiness and prosperity for the happy couple.

Honored Van Lindley and Brown.

The state horticultural society in its annual session last night re-elected J. Van Lindley president for the ensuing year. T. L. Brown, of this city, was chosen secretary.

THE EPISCOPAL CONVOCATION

To Convene in High Point Next Monday. Local and Personal.

TELEGRAM BUREAU,
HIGH POINT, N. C., Oct. 21, '97.

Our friend Mr. Milton Crawford has already begun to display Klondike propensities, although the leaves have just begun to fall and spring time is yet a great way off. A rustic customer a few days ago was stupefied with amazement to see that gentleman's shirt suddenly change from a gay pink to a gaudy plaid. He looked with superstitious awe, expecting every moment to see our friend's ruddy complexion change to the blue pallor of death, but no such thing happened. Crawford simply had on one of his new revolving shirt bosoms of many colors like Joseph's coat, which changed its color every hour if desirable.

The Episcopal convocation will be held at St. Mary's church, beginning next Monday night and continuing Tuesday and Wednesday. There will be ten or twelve visiting ministers at the convocation, representing Salisbury, Concord, Greensboro, Burlington, Winston and other places.

Miss Mollie Debnan passed through on the south bound train this morning.

Dr. Stanton returned to the city today.

Gen. Glenn, of Greensboro, is in the city.

Miss Minnie Coltrane returned to Randleman this morning.

W. E. McElroy, of Charlotte is in the city.

Mrs. J. M. Hilliard left for Greensboro today.

Mr. Henry Pitts, of Kox City, Mo., arrived in High Point last night to visit his old home after an absence of about 30 years. Mr. Pitts has found farming a prosperous business in Missouri.

Mrs. Wilson came up on Capt. Rankins train this morning from Randleman, where she has been visiting Mrs. W. A. Woodlen. Mrs. Wilson took the train here for her home in Texas.

James Wray, of Archdale, left for Guilford College this morning. Better stay on the farm Jim and till the soil.

IT WILL BE PRETTY.

When The Obstructions are Removed and Work Finished.

Summit avenue will soon be open to the view of all who go down Church street as far as the corner of Lindsay. J. L. Vawter will begin the moving of the house which stands at the intersection of these two streets this afternoon, as the chimneys have been torn down and other arrangements made. The ell will be moved first and then the main body of the house. It will face Summit avenue looking southeast.

The work will probably be completed by the last of next week. This change will give an uninterrupted view of the avenue looking north west from Church street for nearly a mile and give some idea of the possibilities of a beautiful boulevard.

We predict that this will be the most popular road for wheeling, riding and driving. Here Messrs. Vanstony, Jordan, Osborne, Walsh, Tate and Reese can exercise their blooded horses.

Remember the Concert Friday Night.

Don't forget the organ fund concert tomorrow night, but go and assist in the good work of raising money to buy an organ for the new and handsome West Market street church. These good people deserve all the encouragement you can give them. They have had a long, hard pull in erecting their new and commodious church building. It is a church of which the whole city may justly feel proud. Help these determined ladies in their efforts to raise money to buy an organ to go into this beautiful building as a finishing touch.

Good Citizen of Randolph Dead.

C. S. Kearns, a staunch and valued citizen, of Randolph county, died night before last. He was a careful and painstaking business man, honorable and upright, and by dint of energy and industry had accumulated a considerable estate.

Mr. Kearns was the father of Mrs. William A. Watson, Jr., of this place. Mr. Watson being the proprietor of the roller mills here.

Don't Think He'll Feel It.

While waiting for the train here at noon today Editor Ellis, of the Winston Republican, was asked by a TELEGRAM man what effect the proposed new republican paper here would have on his paper. He replied:

"I don't think we'll feel it, at all. Those who take the new paper will take the Union Republican still. The Republican has stood many storms and its business is increasing."

LUETGERT JURY DISCHARGED

Stood Nine For Conviction And Three For Acquittal.

SHOCK PROSTRATED DEFENDANT.

The Long Trial Almost Wrecked the Gigantic Sausage Maker—Foreman
Replied, We "Cannot Agree."

By Wire To THE TELEGRAM.

Chicago, Oct. 21.—The Luetgert jury has failed to agree upon a verdict. It stood nine for conviction and three for acquittal. It has been discharged after being out sixty-eight hours.

When it became known that the jury was coming in the crowds about the court house became denser. Judge Tuthill was in his seat awaiting its entrance. Luetgert was brought in from his cell. He walked as if dazed and fell stupidly into a chair beside his counsel. His face was blue-white, his eyes sunken and his lips drawn.

The jury walked in single file slowly and deliberately. No hint of the result could be gathered from their faces. Luetgert faced the jury. The Judge asked the defendant to look upon the jury, the jurors to look upon the defendant; he asked had they agreed; Foreman Hosmer replied "we cannot agree." Luetgert swayed suddenly and fell back into his seat, the court room buzzed and the bailiff rapped for order.

SCHOONER RUNS AGROUND.

The Ore Taken Off Safely by the Life Savers.

By Wire To THE TELEGRAM.

Spring Lane, N. J., Oct. 21.—The three-masted schooner Richmond, coal laden from Philadelphia to Rockland, Me., grounded off Spring Lane last night and is in a precarious position. The life savers took the crew off at 3 o'clock this morning.

A heavy sea was running and the rescuers made a breeches buoy after the line was shot over the vessel.

REPLY TO MINISTER WOODFORD.

Spain Will Harp on the Many Filibustering Expeditions.

By Cable To THE TELEGRAM.

Madrid, Oct. 21.—The government's answer to Minister Woodford's recent note regarding Cuba will be drafted by the cabinet tomorrow. The reply includes a formal protest on the part of Spain against the many Cuban filibustering expeditions that have been organized and equipped in the United States.

Will Bid for Union Pacific.

By Cable To THE TELEGRAM.

London, Oct. 21.—Agents of prospective bidders for the Union Pacific railway assert that they are raising ten million dollars in London. There will certainly be competitive bids at the coming sale. The trouble will not be in raising money, but in the price they will be required to bid. They believe the United States government will not sell for less than seventy million dollars. If that figure is not bid the government will hold off until congress meets in December.

Powder Will Bursts Itself.

By Wire To THE TELEGRAM.

Acton, Mass., Oct. 21.—Two mills comprising part of the American Powder Company were blown up this morning by an explosion of gunpowder. Nobody was hurt. The cause of the explosion is not known.

Island Devasted by a Cyclone.

By Cable To THE TELEGRAM.

Madrid, Oct. 21.—Leyte, one of the Philippine islands, has been almost devastated by a cyclone. Many of the inhabitants were killed.

Low Rates to Nashville, Tenn.

The Southern Railway Company will sell tickets to Nashville and return Oct. 25th at special low rate on account of Tennessee Centennial and International Exposition tickets good returning five days from date sold. Rate $6.05, for further information address J. B. GRAHAM, T. A. Greensboro, N. C.

Their Crystal Wedding.

The beautiful home of Rev. and Mrs. W. L. Grissom, at 520 West Market Street, will be the scene of their fifteenth wedding anniversary celebration on Monday evening, November 1st, from eight until twelve o'clock.

Handsome invitations for this event were sent out this week.

RUSSELL ON FREE PASSES.

Says He Has a Pocket Full and Will Continue to Receive Them.

In an interview in the Caucasian
Governor Russell says:

"Yes, it is true that I have been riding on free passes. After my election as Governor all the railroads in the State, and many of them out of it, sent me free passes. I declared that I would not take passes from any of them. In two month's time I yielded to their pressure and not only took their passes, but took a train of cars, of the best finish and excellence furnished, to bring up a party of invited friends to my inauguration. They urged that I should accept what they called their 'courtesies.' They said that I should do as all other Governors had done, and that they were not extending these 'courtesies' with any purpose of influencing my official action, and all the State knows they have not influenced me. Indeed, they put me where not to receive passes would seem discourteous, if not insulting, to them. So I took them and have got a pocket full of them now. If they, or any of them, want to revoke their 'politeness' they have only to intimate as much and they will get it returned on quick time, and any road that does so intimate will be treated by me just as fairly as if I had its passes for a life-time, signed, sealed and delivered."

"But I have concluded that just as long as they send around their passes to officials and favorites, I will take them, when they offer them. As long as they offer them and as long as they offer me their passes, along with those Federal judges who stand in with the monopoly crowd, just so long will I take them. I will refuse my passes if Judge Simpton will refuse his pass and palace car. If he will quit, I will quit; but if he keeps on, I will keep on. Perhaps he will keep on the longer; at any rate his superior claim is not denied."

No Change in the Luetgert Jury.

By Wire To THE TELEGRAM.

Chicago, Oct. 21.—The Luetgert jury is still out, though the case has been in their hands for 56 hours. They are no nearer agreement than heretofore.

ONE GOOD PLANK.

It is the general opinion that Van Wyck is the poorest of all the candidates for mayor of New York; however that may be he has one sentence in his letter accepting the Tammany nomination which strikes what will be the key note in municipal fights generally in the days to come. The sentence is as follows:

"The municipality itself should both own and control its franchises. Where now such franchises are operated under grants to corporations, a fair charge, and that only, for the service rendered or convenience furnished should be permitted."

Let it be noted that this is entirely different from government ownership of railways, though seemingly somewhat similar. The conditions are different.

It may be laid down as a general rule that public franchises in cities when controlled by private corporations are abused. There are exceptions; but they are exceptions. The company controlling the franchise seldom keeps faith with the public for the very simple reason that it can break faith with impunity. The citizen is at its mercy. In the case of lights, transportation and similar things he is frequently given poor service and charged exorbitant rates. A review of litigation on this head will clearly show how powerless he is to secure redress by law.

The corruption that arises in municipal politics from this source is notorious. It is next to impossible to elect any man to a municipal office who is known to be hostile to any of the great corporations that control the city's franchises. When such a man has been elected he frequently suffers a mysterious abatement of his militant zeal after his induction into office.

On the other hand the experience of those cities that have kept their franchises has been that a better service is given the citizen at a lower cost than is the case where the franchise has become private property. It would be easy to multiply instances of this fact at home and abroad. We do not recall now a single instance where this line of policy has been a failure.

If Van Wyck could succeed in securing for New York the control of its own franchises it would be ample reason for making him mayor. The principle is right whatever is made of the candidate who avows it.

OUR good neighbor, Winston, in inviting Miss Cigneros to its fair, shows that it is along toward the front of the procession. In case she comes down this way it is well to know what to call her. A gentleman who used to know some folks of the same name says it is pronounced Siz-nay-ros, with the accent on the middle syllable and "o" long.

SOME enthusiast is indulging in the prediction that Mark Hanna will be succeeded by a democrat in Ohio. It may be true, but it sounds rather too good.

The silence of the Herald, Tribune and World on Dana's death may be taken as consent.

THE Virginia camp of confederate veterans has spoken out plainly on the history question. It condemned strongly some of the histories now in use in our schools. It is quite right. At the same time this action is doubtless induced by the meddlesomeness of the late grand army encampment. If the matter had been let alone a gradually cooling sectional feeling, north and south, would have settled it.

THE fact that Consul General Lee was "touched" for his pocketbook in the capital of his state shows what a warm welcome awaited him and also demonstrated conclusively the superiority of the American over the degenerate Spaniard. General Lee had carried that pocketbook for a year in the streets of Havana.

If it be true, as Mayor Strong asserts, that every speech of a United States Senator for Tracy makes a thousand votes for Low it would be interesting to know how many each effort of Mary Ellen in favor of George contributes to Van Wyck's plurality.

THE United States army reservation in Alaska will contribute its quota to the gold fields next spring when the voice of the avalanche is heard in the land and the heart of the soldier goes out in longing after increased pay.

It may be offered as a pertinent instance of how warm the campaign in New York is that the announcement that a candidate's house was on fire only produced a brief interruption in that gentleman's flow of oratory.

THE Norfolk Landmark came out yesterday as a seven column, eight page paper; a very great improvement over the old blanket form. The paper and its patrons are to be congratulated.

THAT peculiar malignity that fate reserves for excursionists still pursues them with unabated fury. The last evidence was the grounding of a steamer carrying 400 of them.

THE "financial question" may now be said to have settled down to speculation as to the probable price of winter coal.

General News in a Nutshell.

The American Street Railway Association began its annual meeting at Niagara Falls.

It is reported that negotiations for an alliance are in progress between the governments of Spain and Portugal.

Yesterday's receipts from customs were $681,423, the largest for one day since the new tariff law went into effect.

The seventeenth annual convention of the American Federation of Labor will meet in Nashville, Tenn., on December 13.

President McKinley will deliver an address at a banquet in Cincinnati on October 30, and will then go to Canton to cast his vote.

Gen. Federico Puga, former secretary of state of Venezuela, who had been tongueless for nearly five years, died in New York.

Edward Langtry's body was interred at Chester, England. Mrs. Langtry sent a floral wreath tied with ribbons of her racing colors.

Reports of prosecution of missionaries in Turkey were made to the Church of Disciples missionary convention at Indianapolis.

At the meeting of the cabinet yesterday it was decided that each department should adopt regulations to carry out the civil service order recently promulgated by the President.

Mayor Gleason, of Long Island City, N. Y., assisted by employees of the public works department, cut down and carted away posts belonging to a railroad company which were on a public highway.

Managers of Henry George's political campaign in New York are considering a proposition to hire 1,000 men to ride in pairs in street cars and discuss the reasons why George should be elected mayor.

The appellate division of the Supreme Court of New York reaffirmed the decisions of Judges Gaynor and Pryor that the certificates of nomination filed by the Citizens' Union conformed to the law.

In his annual report Judge-Advocate-General Lemly, of the navy, makes a plea for naval veterans who left the service at the end of the civil war without formal discharges, and who are listed as deserters.

BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

E. E. Gray, of Winston, was in the city today.

W. M. Hunt, of Pomona, was here this morning.

J. A. Woodall, of Durham, was in the city today.

O. R. Cox, of Cedar Falls, came up to the city today.

Jas. Kyle, of Fayetteville, is registered at the McAdoo today.

Judge Armistead Burwell, of Charlotte, was in the city today.

Mrs. S. O. Hall left on the noon train to visit friends in Virginia.

Col. A. C. Davis, of Goldsboro, registered at the McAdoo last night.

Col. W. T. Blackwell, of Durham, came up to the city on the noon train.

John W. Hanes, of Winston, came down to the city on the noon train today.

John A. Hodgkin went to Fayetteville and other points down the C. F. & Y. V. today.

About sixty people left here on the early morning special train, bound for the Raleigh fair.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. York returned yesterday from Liberty where they had been to attend the funeral of Mr. York's mother.

Lawyer Brooks is having his office painted and fixed up generally. When finished it will be as bright as a new pin—all of which is in keeping.

L. F. Woodruff returned this morning from an extended trip through the South. He reports Southern cities in a panic, business dead and few trains running.

We are pleased to announce the improvement in the condition of both Miss Annie Brooks and Miss Lucy Jones, who have been very sick the past two weeks.

The local Young Men's Christian Association has suspended. It is requested that all claims against the Association be presented to R. G. Glenn, so that they may be adjusted.

A new store building has been erected at the Proximity mills near the offices of the company. It is built of brick and is twenty-five by one hundred feet, two stories high with a basement.

Owing to the disagreeable state of the weather there was a very small attendance at Centenary church last night. The meeting continues and there will be preaching again tonight at 7:45. Everybody invited to attend these services.

Mrs. J. T. Herrine and Mrs. J. J. Farris, of High Point, have been visiting at the residence of Dr. E. L. Stamey, on South Elm street this week. Mrs. Herrine will return home this evening, while Mrs. Farris will remain a few days.

This morning about 5 o'clock as a freight train was pulling out for Wilkesboro, a car jumped the track near Davis street crossing and tore up the track for about 50 feet. It required a good portion of the forenoon to repair the damage.

Cards were received here today announcing the marriage in Danville, Va., on Wednesday, November 3rd, of Miss Mary Kathryn Penn to Mr. Barnes Rucker, Penn. The ceremony will be performed in Main Street Methodist church at half after eight o'clock in the evening.

On account of its being Saturday night the price of admission to see "Fazio Romani" at the Academy the 23rd, has been made 35 and 50 cents; children, 25 cents. This attraction comes to us very highly recommended, and at the popular price charged you can ill afford to miss the opportunity of seeing it.

Editor W. J. Ellis, of the Union Republican, Winston, was here at noon today. He was returning from Mt. Holly, where he went to attend the marriage of his son, C. W. Ellis and Miss Stella Hutchison, which event took place yesterday. The newly married couple passed here last night on a bridal trip to northern cities.

Len Brown and Montgomery Blease, of Winston, were in the city last night. They were frank to tell that they had run away, Brown being sent to Kernersville to solicit subscriptions for the Journal, and Blease, who is a Journal carrier, left town of his own accord. They left here today at ten o'clock saying they were going home, but that "they" would never know they had been to Greensboro.

A horse hitched to a dray in front of Clegg's, on South Elm, about noon today took a sudden notion to run, and would have had things all his own way but for the quick action of Zeb Clegg, who caught the bridle reins and bravely swung on. He was carried considerable distance up the street, but succeeded in checking the animal. No damage was done.

GRAND CONCERT AND OPERA.

What Norfolk People Think of Mme. Scalchi.

A rarely beautiful autumn evening and the rich musical treat promised, called a big audience to the Academy of Music last evening to hear the great Scalchi in concert and opera. When it was announced a short while since that Mme. Scalchi would appear at the Academy of Music on the 18th instant, the music-loving people of the two cities hailed the fact with delight, and from the names of the artists who would appear with her most brilliant entertainment was believed to be in prospect.

As a result, when the curtain went up at the Academy last evening the magnificent auditorium of the house as well as the balcony was filled with one of the most brilliant and most highly cultivated audiences that has ever assembled in that building. Indeed, such an audience in such a setting as the Academy of Music affords, might be likened unto a painting of Messiaen in a frame of velvet glittering in gold. It was highly cultured, and withal critical, and no gathering in any playhouse was ever better pleased.

Mme. Scalchi, seemingly inspired by the occasion, sang with remarkable power and effect. Her audience were wild with delight when in answer to a double encore she sang "Annie Laurie." Her voice had remarkable range and quality, and it gave expression to the delicate music in a manner which lingered long after the last notes had died away. But then, it was not alone Scalchi who pleased the audience. There was Mr. McQueen, who was the best baritone heard in Norfolk for years; and Mlle. Du Bedot, Signor Alberti, and Mlle. Toulouguet, all of whom sang magnificently. Encores were asked and freely given, that of "The Last Rose of Summer" by Mlle. Toulouguet being especially sweet and effective.

At the end of the concert one act of "Il Trovatore" was put on with Mlle. Toulouguet as "Lenora;" Mr. McQueen as "Mauricio;" Signor Alberti as "Count di Kuma," and Scalchi as "Azucena." With such a cast the readers of the Virginian can imagine the grandeur of the presentation. —Norfolk Virginian of Oct. 19.

It should not be forgotten that the Scalchi concert will be in a different class from anything ever presented here before. It is not too much to say that no artist of Mme. Scalchi's prestige has ever before appeared on a Greensboro stage. It will be many a day before it sees another such. She is a favorite with London, Paris, Berlin, New York and Washington audiences. It is only by good chance that she sings here at all. Greensboro people should show they appreciate the best by giving her a full house.

The music will not be all operatic. Ballads will be sung as encores, as seen in the clipping above.

The prices have not been published for good reasons but are exceedingly low. The seats are on sale at Wharton's book store.

Cheap Gas.

Since October 1st, 1897, and forward, illuminating gas furnished at $2 per thousand feet, if bill is paid on presentation, provided the same amounts to $1 or more for each meter. Fuel gas for cooking purposes $1 per thousand feet, net.
